1. Introduction

Namibia recognises the importance of the global Agenda 2030 specified through 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and a corresponding indicator framework. As presented through the Voluntary National Review (VNR) (National Planning Commission Namibia, 2018) on the progress of the implementation of the SDGs, Namibia aims to achieve the implementation through the national development agendas and monitoring framework.

This framework reflects the level of alignment of the indicator framework of the current National Development Plan (NDP5) (Government of the Republic of Namibia, 2017) and the SDGs indicator framework. The document is a supplement to the SDGs Baseline Report (Namibia Statistics Agency, 2019) where detailed information on the 244 indicators of the SDGs monitoring framework is displayed. This supplementary document further serves as a framework for aligning other national development plans for ease of monitoring and reporting.

It is therefore envisaged that once the document is launched, a system will be implemented where data collection and compilation of indicators can be done at a central place, and the indicator framework made available to the relevant stakeholders to derive their respective reports. This will eliminate duplication and resource wastage in the data collection and thus avoid response fatigue.

2. NDP 5 Indicator Framework

The indicator framework of NDP 5 is not fully consistent with the NDP 5 document. Therefore, a full evaluation and numbering of the indicators posed a challenge. Eventually, the NDP 5 indicator framework has been compiled to 139 indicators under four high-level goals and 39 focus areas. The numbering of the NDP 5 indicators in this document is kept as far as possible in the same format as in the original document. However, a few changes became necessary to assign unique numbers.

Out of the 139 indicators, 21 have been classified as inconsistent either in the definition of the indicator at different sections in the document or uncertainty in the measurement unit. The remaining indicators have been aligned to the current state of the SDGs indicators framework.

3. SDGs – NDP 5 Indicator Alignment

The following preliminary and coarse alignment is based on three categories of indicator linkages:

■ Identical

NDP Indicators classified as identical are directly aligned to the SDGs indicator either through an identical definition or as direct contribution to the general or aggregated SDGs indicators.

■ Strong Proxy

NDP indicators classified as strong proxy are considered to be indirectly linked to the SDGs indicators, so that by measuring the NDP indicator reliable conclusions can be made on the SDGs indicators.

■ Weak Proxy

NDP indicators classified as weak proxy could be linked to the SDGs targets but an indirect measure of the SDGs indicators itself is questionable.

It must be emphasised that multiple alignments of one NDP indicator to multiple SDGs indicators are possible if classified as strong or weak alignment. The alignment outcome is based on two approaches, namely:

- a. multi-stakeholder assessment comprised of National Planning Commission (NPC), United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and Namibia Statistics Agency (NSA) that carried out the task of linking the NDP 5 indicators to each of the SDGs, and
- b. an internal evaluation at NSA level to assess the linkages at the indicator to indicator level.

The tables below provide linkages of the SDGs and NDP 5 indicators. In the tables, the notations presented in the column labelled “Link” identify the level of alignment, e.g. “I” is for an identical indicator, “S” is for a strong proxy indicator and “W” for a weak proxy indicator.

4. Conclusion and Recommendations

The presented evaluation on the alignment of national indicators to monitor the development of Namibia with respect to the global Agenda 2030 shows that at Goal to Pillar level (high level) a perfect alignment is observed. However, at the indicator level, which is crucial for monitoring progress in the implementation of the socio-economic programs, only a small fraction (13%) of NDP 5 indicators are directly aligned. Furthermore, the majority of these indicators are concentrated under the “classical” development sector under Goal 1 on Poverty, Goal 3 on Health, Goal 4 on Education and Goal 8 on Economic Development. Additionally, Goal 9 on Infrastructure is relatively well covered.

If more NDP 5 Indicators (such as strong and weak proxy) are to be used in the future to cover the SDGs monitoring in Namibia, more in depth research is needed to provide more evidence on the usability of the proxy indicator. Fortunately, for some indicators under NDP 5 only a small change in the definition is needed to fully align it to the SDGs indicators framework. The recommendations for these indicators are available and can be provided upon request.

The potential to align NDP 5 indicators and corresponding data sources for a frequent use and update of the SDGs indicators framework is limited due to the low frequency of data production of many of the indicators.

It is therefore highly recommended that in the process of mid-term reviewing of NDP 5, the indicators are redefined based on the experiences on improved data production gained in the development of the SDGs Baseline Report.
